

Evening MBA NEW STUDENT CHECKLIST

1. PLANNING YOUR DEGREE

- ❑ Review the 16-month Evening MBA Degree Roadmap.
 - All Evening MBA students are required to follow this degree roadmap.
- ❑ Review the MBA Course Detail Sheet to see the full list of MBA courses and their planned offer terms, or refer to the PDF of Current Course Offerings for the list of current term course options.

2. REGISTRATION

- ❑ Register for classes through RamWeb, and order textbooks through the CSU Bookstore.
 - Please note, not all classes use traditional textbooks. If a textbook isn't listed for a course, this means course materials will be noted in the syllabus.

3. FINANCIAL SUPPORT

- ❑ Visit The Hub – CSU's one-stop-shop for financial aid, billing, scholarships, tuition support, and more.
 - Please note, The Hub is a high contact office, and response times can take up to one week. Please reach out proactively.
- ❑ Students may also email specialprograms@colostate.edu with billing questions or for billing support.
- ❑ Military-connected students should work with the Veterans Education Benefits Office in the Office of the Registrar for education benefits use and related questions.

4. TECHNOLOGY & MANDATORY TRAINING

- ❑ You may download Microsoft Office Suite and Acrobat Reader as a part of your student benefits.
- ❑ Check your CSU email frequently as some offices communicate only through official CSU email.
 - After registration you will be emailed an invitation to each course. You must "accept" the course invitation to access your class.
- ❑ Contact CSU Tech Support or the College of Business Tech Support if you need technical support.
- ❑ Per university policy, complete the mandatory Sexual Assault Prevention training module prior to the start of your first term. Look for emails from the CSU Health Network sent to your CSU email about completing this required training.
- ❑ Complete the CSU Health Network requirements for graduate students.

5. INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

- ❑ International students should work with the Office of International Student & Scholar Services for support on the visa process and coming to Fort Collins.

- The Office of International Programs is also another CSU resource for international students.
- These offices will support international students through the visa process, including any required paperwork or documentation. There is also a required International Student Orientation from these offices.

6. SCHEDULE YOUR REQUIRED ADVISING APPOINTMENT

- After you have completed the majority of this New Student Checklist, you may schedule your Acclimation Advising Appointment.
 - All Evening MBA students are required to meet with their advisor, virtually, prior to the start of the semester.

7. YOUR FIRST CLASS

- Classes open in Canvas about one week prior to the official first day of class.
 - When a course opens, download the syllabus, review and add the assignment deadlines to your calendar.
 - Review required reading and materials noted on the syllabus. Ensure you obtain any additional required materials.
 - You will only have access to course materials one semester after the course ends. Download any lectures or materials you may want to access in the future before the course ends.
- For most classes you will be assigned an Instructional Coordinator (IC) – get to know your IC and learn the best times and modes of communication that work for them in case you need support.
- Classes in the first year are T/TH from 5:30 – 9:10 p.m. In the second year, classes are M/F from 5:30 – 9:10 p.m.
 - Please arrive on time, be prepared to actively participate, and avoid disruptions in the classroom.
 - Business casual attire is considered an expectation of the MBA program, attendance is required, and classes are filmed and recorded, so please ensure you use professional business communication and are respectful of your MBA peers, faculty and staff.
